4 Bedroom, 3.00 Bathroom, 1,430 sqft
Residential on 0.00 Acres

Bowness, Calgary, Alberta

Nestled on the highly desirable Bow Crescent, this spacious 4-bedroom, 3.5-bathroom townhome offers an incredible opportunity to build equity in one of Calgary's most sought-after communities. Just steps from the Bow River, Hexall Park, and scenic pathways, this home provides the perfect blend of nature and convenience.

With downtown, the Children's Hospital, Foothills Hospital, the University of Calgary, and Canada Olympic Park all within easy reach, plus quick access to Stoney Trail and the mountains, the location is unbeatable.

This home offers a spacious and functional layout, perfect for comfortable living and entertaining. The main floor features a bright and inviting living room with a cozy fireplace, large windows that flood the space with natural light, and access to a balcony—an ideal spot to relax and take in the surroundings. The adjacent dining room flows seamlessly into the kitchen, which boasts plenty of counter space and a second balcony, perfect for barbecuing and outdoor gatherings.

Upstairs, the primary suite is a true retreat, offering a generous space, a private ensuite, with new toilet and yet another balcony to enjoy your morning coffee or unwind in the evening. An additional two bedrooms provide ample room for family or guests.

The fully developed basement adds even more versatility to the home, featuring a spacious entertainment area, a wet bar, and an additional bedroom—perfect for visitors or a home office. While the home is ready for some updates, its price reflects its incredible potential. This is a fantastic opportunity to personalize the space and build equity with a few modern touches.
